LEGAL NOTICE.

IN THE CORPORATION COURT OF THE CITY OF MANCHESTER, THE WILL OF JULY 1, 1905, of WILLIAM JONES, deceased, and Amelia Tapley Jones, infants under the age of twenty-one years, who sue by Amelia Jones, their mother, as executrix, vs. Arthur C. Evans, curator of the estate of William Jones, deceased; Mark T. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Virginia J. Jones, and William Gregory Jones, if alive, or if dead, his unknown descendants. The object of this suit is to make partition among the several parties entitled thereto, some of the lands described by law, of the real estate of which the late William Jones died seized and possessed; to sell the contents of a trunk and a box, and the contents of a safe, and the said real estate which have accrued since the death of the said William Jones, all of which said real estate is situated in the city of Manchester, and is described as follows, to-wit:

(1) A lot of land, fronting twenty feet on a west side of Twelfth Street, between Stockton and Everett Streets, and running back between parallel lines one hundred and twenty-two feet to an alley twenty feet wide, with a two-story frame dwelling thereon, designated as 213 East Twelfth Street.

(2) A lot of land, fronting thirty feet on the eastern line of Eleventh Street, between Stockton and Everett Streets, and running back between parallel lines one hundred and twenty-seven feet to an alley in common ten feet wide, with a two-story frame dwelling thereon, designated as 206 East Eleventh Street.

(3) A lot of land at the corner of Ninth and Everett Streets, being part of Square No. 21 in Block 4, and fronting on the western line of Ninth Street eighty feet and running back along the northern line of Everett Street one hundred and twenty-two feet, with a two-story frame dwelling thereon, designated as 210, 221, 223 and 225 East Ninth Street.

(4) A lot of land, fronting thirty-three feet on the western line of Twelfth Street, between Stockton and Everett Streets, beginning sixty-six feet north of Stockton Street, and running back between parallel lines one hundred and twenty-two feet to an alley twenty feet wide, with a two-story frame dwelling thereon, designated as 207 East Twelfth Street.

And affidavit having been made and filed that William Gregory Jones, who, if alive, is one of the heirs at law of William Jones, deceased, and Virginia J. Jones, deceased, is a non-resident of the State of Virginia, and that if the said William Gregory Jones died, leaving descendants or children surviving him, the names and residences of such children are unknown, such children or descendants having been omitted as defendants in the bill by the general description of parties unknown. It is ordered that the said William Gregory Jones, if alive, or if he be dead, leaving children or descendants, or children or descendants, unknown parties as aforesaid, do appear here within fifteen days after the publication of this order and do what may be necessary to protect their interests in this suit.
